

9th round

Amazing round in Reggio Emilia!

The battle between Nakamura and Giri is a real head to head match, the Dutch player won and he joined the lead with Morozevich. The game was astonishing and at the end Anish won.

The game between Morozevich and Ivanchuk ended in a draw. The Ukrainian stopped his vicious circle and takes a pause from losing.

Caruana has started feeling his chances of winning Reggio Emilia and as a great fighter, he fought against Nikita Vitiugov and managed to destroy his defense.

Now the ranking is very tight. Nakamura, Morozevich and Giri 15 points and Caruana 14.

Tomorrow Giri versus Caruana, battle between the two young giants, while Nakamura is going to play with black against Ivanchuk and Morozevich is going to face Vitiugov. Who's going to win?

It's incredible! Neither a thriller story would have imagined such an engaging ending. Four players still racing for the top place.

Even in the female tournament the last word hasn't been said. Even if Sopiko Guramishvili won against Videnova, Anna Sharevic by winning against Maria De Rosa, is close to Sopiko's heels and tomorrow there will have a head to head game, by the way the first game between them was won Sharevic.

Marianna Chierici after yesterday's marathon, she arrived at the board without determination and didn't play the best of her potential against Marina Brunello. With this win Marina can likely reach the second position, but she has already assured the third place.

Brunello - Chierici 1-0
Videnova - Guramishvili 0-1
Sharevic - De Rosa 1-0

Caruana - Vitiugov 1-0
Nakamura - Giri 0-1
Morozevich - Ivanchuk 1/2

Domani 6 gennaio alle 13
